FIRE ROBOTS AT YANKS IN NORMANDY

JUL 14 1944
STATE HOUSE BOSTON

SOMEWHERE IN FRANCE, June 19 (delayed) (AP)—Flying bombs of the type now descending on London have been sent against troops on the American beach head. At least one has been identified by aviation ordnance officers and parts of another have been found. It is difficult to tell the new Nazi bomb from a heavy shell when it hits, particularly in areas under intense gunfire.

Heads Up Fighting in France—French hats come to mean something to these GI Joes in Cherbourg, where they have been able to rack up a set of skimmers for all . . . and are now trying them out for lack of fit outside the store. Funny, but a change from their Yankee helmets, they say.

Reds 31 Miles From Reich

By EDDY GILMORE

MOSCOW, July 13 (AP)—Russian troops drove to a point within 30 miles of East Prussia today in a 19-mile advance in the Suwalki area of western White Russia.

(Suwalki itself is but 11 miles from East Prussia. It is a city of old Poland and a wedge of land between East Prussia and Lithuania. It lies 60 miles southwest of Kaunas and 90 miles from the Prussian Baltic coast. A Russian drive to the Baltic might trap two German armies in the Russian-annexed states of Estonia, Latvia and Lithuania.

(An NBC broadcast from Sweden said the Russians were within 12 miles of East Prussia after driving 30 miles beyond Grodno, also an old Polish city. Such proximity would mean battle echoes could be heard in Germans itself.)

Other Russian columns struck within 38 miles of Kaunas, old capital of Lithuania, in a seven-mile advance. Detachments were within 29 miles of Grodno after racing 27 miles in 24 hours. Yet another group was 50 miles from Bialystok, strategic rail center leading into Warsaw and East Russia.

Brest Litovsk, on the River Bug, was within 67 miles of forces on the north and 70 of those in the Pripjat marsh area.

150 MILE FROM WARSAW

Warsaw itself was within 150 miles of Russian guns to the north-east.

Daugavpils, gateway to the Baltic sea and Riga, was feeling increasing pressure of two huge approaching Russian armies. Already its garrison was like the one surrounded in Wilno in Lithuania, bracing for the coming blow.

The newest disaster to befall the Germans was Gen. Yeremenko's offensive against the Latvian republic, which in its first two days gobbled up more than 1000 villages in a break-through which front dispatches said was now 100 miles wide and 25 miles deep north of Gen. Bagration's first Baltic army.

Yeremenko, fresh from his victories in the Crimea, moved to within 18 miles of the border of the Latvian Soviet republic on the main Velikie Luki-Riga railway.

A Moscow communique said more than 7000 Germans were killed and about 1500 taken prisoner in a single day's fighting on the new sector.

NAZIS IN DISORDER

Front dispatches pictured this latest offensive as well under way and said the Germans were falling back pell-mell.

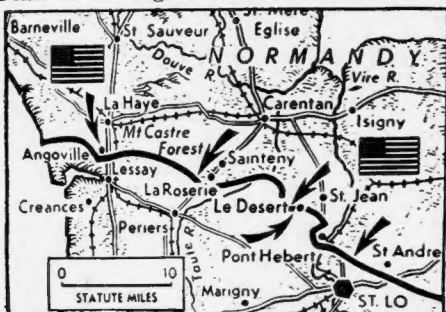

The Berlin Radio, apparently news of a large-scale withdrawal along the entire eastern front, said:

"It is obvious that the front cannot remain as it is. There are two alternatives. One is a large scale counter-offensive and the other the adaptation of the entire front to new lines. Since we are on the defensive in the east, the second alternative is the one to be applied."

A dispatch to Ivestia said Yeremenko's offensive, which swept in the big towns of Idrissa, 22 miles east of the Latvian border, and Kudevur, about 35 miles northwest of Idrissa, began with a heavy artillery barrage that blasted the Germans' "permanent" fortifications as high as 130 feet in the air.

Sebez, 28 miles northwest of Opochka, 15 miles southwest of the strongholds held by the Germans on the eastern side of the Latvian middle border, were feeling the Artillery of Yeremenko's units. His infantry fanned out north and south of both objectives.

To the south the right wing of Gen. Bagration's Army, which had crossed the River Drissa, was 4 miles from the Latvian border. The left arm of Bagration's forces, moving up through the lake country to the south of Daugavpils (Dvinsk), got within 17 miles of the city in the region of the village of Rymshiki.

FRANCE—Yanks roll through Angerville and reach a point three miles south of Le Haye, gain in the La Roserie area, turn back heavy German counter-attacks in the Le Desert sector and map up in St. Andre.

Nazis Fall Back On 100-Mi. Line

By KINGSBURY SMITH

ALLIED HEADQUARTERS, July 13 (INS)—Punishing assaults by American troops driving the Germans steadily back from the neck of the Cherbourg peninsula carried the Yanks today to positions three miles south of captured La Haye du Puits.

The Germans were battered back by American, British and Canadian forces at important points all along the Normandy battlefield which has been extended to a distance of 100 miles.

The Americans scored the principal gains in drives directed against the communications centers of St. Lo, Periers and Lessay. British and Canadian forces inflicted severe losses on the Germans in beating down enemy counter-attacks. They improved their positions between the Orne and the Orne, near the Orne, southwest of Caen.

The Yanks were reported to have smashed to within a mile and one-half of St. Lo and headquarters places other American troops within three miles of both Periers and Lessay.

Numerous towns along the entire American-held front fell to the punishing assaults of Gen. Bradley's forces.

The American advances created several salients in the German line which the Yanks proceeded to close.

The Germans continued to hurl heavy counter-attacks against the British on the eastern sectors but these forces held, moved forward at some points to improved positions.

Yanks 12 Miles Off Gothic Line

ROME, July 13 (AP)—Fifth Army troops have captured Lajatico, 15 miles inland from the Italian west coast of Castiglione, and French forces have seized San Donato, astride an important secondary highway. Allied headquarters announced today, Lajatico, previously bypassed, fell after some of the bitterest fighting in several weeks. Doughboys captured 150 to 200 prisoners in the town and then surged on northward, reaching a point only 12 miles from the Arno river valley, key to the outer defenses of the Nazis' "Gothic line," by noon yesterday.

French troops on the right of the Americans carved a path through German defense points and captured San Donato, astride a secondary highway in a mountainous area 25 miles southwest of Florence.

Still farther to the east other French forces repulsed enemy counter-attacks against Hill 218, two miles southwest of Poggiorena and 38 miles inland from the west coast.

U. S. Heavies Pound Munich Heavily on 3d Straight Day

LONDON, July 13 (AP)—A thousand Flying Fortresses and Liberators bombed Munich for the third successive day today and also struck at Saarbrücken in western Germany.

Munich is a transportation center for railways and roads between Germany, Italy and France, and the attack fitted into the rapidly snowballing campaign threatening to cripple German transport over all western Europe.

The Munich area now has received about 9000 tons of American bombs in three days, making RUSSIA—Pushing relentlessly forward Red forces today are in the Suwalki area, within 30 miles of East Prussia. Other Soviet troops are now 30 miles from the key city of Grodno as the Nazis fall back along the entire central Russian front.

45,000 Trapped Japs Hit Yanks

By Associated Press

Another isolated Japanese army, twice as large as the 20,000-man force wiped out on Saipan last week, today built up an all-out offensive to break free of the Allied death-trap on New Guinea.

EDOUARD HERRIOT

Germans Report Herriot Death

LONDON, July 13 (AP)—The death of Edouard Herriot, three times premier of France, was announced today by the German agency DNB. The Berlin broadcast gave no details.

The 72-year-old French liberal and champion of parliamentary government previously had been reported from time to time to be dead, in sanatoriums or in concentration camps.

A French language broadcast from the British radio recorded by CBS said the German announcement "seems to be a false report purposely spread in France."

Britain Resumes Airmail

LONDON, July 13 (AP)—Civil airmail service was resumed today from Britain to Switzerland, Spain, Portugal, Corsica, Algeria, Tunisia, Tangier and French and Spanish Morocco. The British post office announcement reflected Allied air domination of western Europe.

The preliminaries started Monday with an attack against veteran American troops 21 miles south of Aitape, one of the jaws of the trap which has squeezed the enemy into the Wewak area.

A second attack followed Tuesday and Gen. MacArthur reported skirmishes were continuing. The other jaw is an Australian force pushing up from the south.

A heavy force gathered for the breakthrough attempt evidently was hoping to clear an escape path for 45,000 troops westward to Dutch New Guinea. This force, the remainder of 60,000 men who made up the Japanese 18th army, had to break out or perish.

This Jap action came amid announcement of record casualty figures in the Saipan victory. Adm. Nimitz disclosed 2359 U. S. troops were killed, 11,481 wounded and 1213 missing in the 23-day battle which won this strategic island for the Allies.

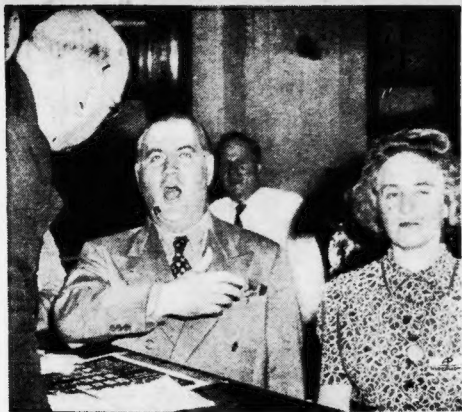

The Japanese suffered more heavily. They lost 11,948 known dead and perhaps as many as 15,000. More than 1000 prisoners—a record for a single action in the Pacific—were taken, in addition to 9000 civilian internees.

Neutralization of island bases flanking Saipan continued. Guam has been bombed and shelled daily and other islands were hit to wipe out Japanese air strength. Truk also was hit with 50 tons Monday.

MacArthur joined in this process, sending his bombers against Timor, Ceram, Babo, Palau, Wolei and Rabaul.

In China the Japanese moved 25 miles up the Hankow-Canton railroad to reinforce an enemy force still attacking in hopes of capturing Hengyang. The enemy's southern China army was near Yingtak, 190 miles south of Hengyang.

In Burma two Chinese divisions joined forces near Mogaung, effectively guarding a 300-mile cleared section of the Ledo road. To the east in Yunnan Province Chinese troops took the last important position outside Tengchung, enemy-held base vital to reopening the Burma-Ledro road.

JUDGE RULES IT MUSIC—Opera Tenor Dmitri Onofrei sings for Judge H. P. Girl Driver Gets 6-Month Term

Mary G. Miller, 20, Farrington st., North Quincy, found guilty in Quincy court today on a charge of leaving the scene of an accident after bowling over three Quincy firemen, was sentenced to six months in the house of correction by Judge Nash.

The attractive brunette defendant appealed the jail term and was released in personal bond of $500. She paid fines totaling $25 on charges of operating without a license and operating negligently.

Police charged Miss Miller driving from an early-morning party May 25, struck the firemen as they were rolling up hose after battling a fire in Quincy Shore dr.

The injured firemen were Peter Mitchell, 26, of Mechanic st.; Francis Sullivan, 38, Branch st., and Joseph Leblanc, 35, Lansdowne st., all of Quincy.

According to police, the girl stopped momentarily and then sped away. She was arrested an hour later in Faxon rd., about a mile away, police said.

Hot Spell Breaks, Cooler Friday

The weatherman looked over his charts today and, to the great relief of Bostonians, announced: "The end is near."

Temperatures will drop gradually until readings of about 62 are recorded tonight, he promised. Sunny skies and cooler weather will prevail Friday with gentle winds helping to clear the atmosphere, the weatherman predicted.

ABOARD SPARSHIP—Eleanor Duffy of Crescent ave., Dorchester, is completing her training aboard the U. S. Coast Guard SPARship Biltmore at Palm Beach, Fla. On completion of the course she will be assigned to a Coast Guard shore station, releasing a man for combat duty.

List to Starboard Costly to Sailor

A punch in the nose, ripped trousers and generally hurt feelings were the rewards received by Navy Petty Officer John J. Carey of Rowley for his kindness in helping a fellow-sailor who had too much "cargo" aboard.

In Lynn court today, Seaman Alvin J. Riley, 22, of Broadway, Saugus, the object of Carey's intercession, was fined $75 on a charge of driving while drunk. Judge Robert C. Hill filed charges of assault and battery and drunkenness.

Carey complained he agreed to take Riley home in his car from a Lynnfield diner last night. He said that Riley tossed him out of the car in front of Riley's home and started to drive away with Carey's car.

New War on Gas Rackets

The State-wide drive to wipe out the gasoline black market was in full swing today with a dozen more dealers facing federal charges and OPA ready to crack down on war workers responsible for illegal sales.

Speaking to 800 Greater Boston gasoline dealers in New England Mutual Hall, Cornelius J. Moynihan, regional OPA enforcement officer, warned that there is to be no more fooling or leniency.

"Illegal sales of 100-gallon inventory gasoline coupons have been traced to an essential war plant in this area, as well as to many gas station dealers in the Greater Boston area," Moynihan said. "Twelve dealers face charges Monday."

"Many of you here at this meeting are going to be called in to explain certain irregularities, and you had better come. The day of laxity is over."

"You got away with passing in phony T and A-6 coupons, but those days are ended. We have found that certain war plant workers nurtured a black market. The whole affair is going to come out, even though it means sacrificing valuable man hours."

"There is no greater danger to the war effort than misdirection of valuable gasoline. Those responsible, even though they feign patriotism by wearing overalls and carrying a dinner pail, are going to be punished."

Irate Wife Drops Angler in Harbor

PLYMOUTH, July 13.—One angler—and he shall remain unidentified—took to the quiet of the ponds today after an embarrassing domestic quarrel that landed him in the harbor.

Fishing from the State Pier, along with more than a hundred other mackerel fishermen, the poor soul was given a hearty shove that dropped him into the water 30 feet below.

And while he swam slowly to shore his irate spouse shouted: "Fish, fish, fish. That's all you want to do. You haven't even put up the screens yet, but you can fish, fish, fish."

Bandman Powell Held in Draft Bribe

DETROIT, July 13 (INS)—Teddy Powell, 38-year-old nationally known orchestra leader, was arrested today in Detroit by the FBI on charges of bribing a draft official to evade service.

Powell was arrested while rehearsing at Eastwood Gardens where he has been drawing large audiences.

Gail Honeymoon Balked by Navy

MIAMI, Fla., July 13 (AP)—A postponed honeymoon was in prospect for screen actress Gail Patrick and her bridegroom of a day, Naval Lt. Arnold Dean White, when it was revealed the lieutenant has been restricted to quarters for ten days.

Lt. Com. H. F. Webster, acting commanding officer of the naval air transport base where Lt. White is stationed, said the officer was restricted to bachelor quarters at the station for going to Jacksonville without leave.

Miss Patrick and Lt. White were married Tuesday in All Saints Episcopal Chapel at the Jacksonville naval air station.

Ex-Convict Aids McGrath Probe

After interviewing six more persons in the month-old murder of Francis McGrath of Dorchester, state police today were expected to re-question a man who previously has been grilled many times and steadily maintained innocence.

The latest to be interviewed never had entered the case before and it was reported they had shed valuable light on the case, further implicating at least one suspect.

One of them is a former convict, who is believed to have given information which may aid in solving the crime.

Free Band Concerts Will Start Sunday

MANCHESTER, N. H. July 13—A series of weekly band concerts, paid for with funds from salvaged paper, will begin Sunday on the grounds of the Veterans Hospital, Spring st., West Roxbury, according to announcement by Mayor Tobin.

The four Sunday afternoon concerts, lasting from 3 p. m. to 5 p. m. will be given by Alfonso D'Avino's 30 piece band. Admission will be free.

Hunt Fortress In N. H., Maine

MANCHESTER, N. H. July 13—A two-state air search was intensified today for a Flying Fortress, believed forced down somewhere between Manchester's Grenier Field and Dow Field at Bangor, Me.

Delay Soldier Ballot Printing

With at least one recount scheduled in the fight for major state office, unforeseen delay came today in printing of ballots to be sent to servicemen overseas—the real object in holding primary day 10 weeks early.

Laurence Curtis, former state senator, announced he was petitioning for a recount in his fight with Fred J. Burrell for the Republican nomination for state treasurer, closest contest in the primaries.

With only a few precincts missing, Burrell, a former state treasurer, polled 92,176 votes to 91,888 for Curtis.

DOUBLE VICTORY

Another matter to be straightened out came with the double victory of James M. Bresnahan of Lynn, who won both the Democratic nomination for secretary of state and for Congress in the 6th district. He won the latter nomination on stickers and now must reject one of the nominations.

In this connection it was learned State Democratic Committee Chairman William H. Burke conferred today with Bresnahan and Mrs. Margaret M. O'Riordan of Jamaica Plain, who finished second in the secretary contest.

The decision on his future course was left to Bresnahan. In the event he withdrew from the secretary of state fight to run for Congress, Burke and the state committee would meet to name Mrs. O'Riordan or another candidate to run for the state post.

These two questions must be settled before election ballots can be printed.

At the same time there was talk that State Treasurer Francis X. Hurley, defeated by Mayor Tobin for the Democratic nomination for governor, would resign his state office and return to private practice.

Mayor Tobin won the Democratic nomination over Hurley by a 50,000-vote margin, carrying Boston by a ratio of 11 to 8 and piling up a 2 to 1 or better average in other parts of the state. His November opponent will be Lt. Gov. Horace T. Cahill, who was unopposed.

Tobin's latest total, compiled in 1788 of the 1805 precincts, was 131,507 to 77,309 for Hurley.

STABBING ECHO—Charging that her "eligibility as a marriageable young lady" was affected when she was stabbed in a Philadelphia hotel, Margherita Clement, 22, Main Line socialite and ex-model, today sued socially prominent Sidney Bullen Dunn, Jr., for $25,000 in Norrisstown, Pa. Dunn is now serving a 3 to 7-year sentence for the knifing.

Braintree Hero On Way Home

Marine 2d Lt. Robert F. Murphy, 23, of Spruce st., Braintree, a flier with 500 hours of combat flying in his 26 months in the Pacific, is back on United States soil and eager for a first glimpse of his two-year-old son.

The arrival of the Braintree flier at Miramar, Cal., was reported in a dispatch from a Stoneham girl at Miramar air base, Pvt. Israel Leary of the Marine Corps Women's Reserve.

He will leave there soon for a visit here with his wife, the former Corine Malphurs of Ridgeland, S. C.; their three children, including the unseen 2-year-old, and his parents, Mr. and Mrs. C. A. Murphy.

40 Toil 10 Days, Save Coon Hound

LESTERVILLE, Mo., July 13 (AP)—The rescue efforts of 40 men and boys who spent 10 days blasting and chipping through a limestone bluff were successful and "Old Drive," a 10-year-old coon hound was lifted out of an unexplored underground cave in the most inaccessible heart of Missouri's Ozark mountains.

"Old Drive" called by his owner, farmer Jake Light, "the best coon dog in Reynolds County," fell into a narrow ravine and down into the cave during a raccoon hunt July 2.

Who's the Boss?

GERING, Neb., July 13 (AP)—County Judge Ted R. Feidler appeared slightly puzzled as he looked over the marriage license of the couple before him. They explained. Miss Thomas Delgado, 18, and her husband-to-be, Elizabeth Mano, 22, both of Mitchell, Neb., said there was a "mixup" in naming each of them at birth but they never changed their given names.

And they do not intend to do so, they said, after they were married by Judge Feidler.

Chaotic Conditions Still Rule in Rome

By EDWARD KENNEDY

ROME, July 13 (AP)—Premier Bonomi's government will establish itself Saturday in a Rome still beset by chaotic conditions after six weeks of Allied occupation.

Though the capital's food supply problems are far from solved, the situation is better for the masses than in the final days under the Germans. Most public services are worse now than when the Germans were here. The main cause of this is the damage done to installations by the Germans.

Shortage of electric power is one of Rome's greatest tribulations. Power came almost entirely from hydro-electric establishments to the north, and many of these installations were wrecked by the Germans.

TROLLEY LINES RUNNING

Trolley lines are operating but for the time being are limited to local transport and most of these were carried off by the Germans. Houses in the higher parts of the city are without adequate water because of insufficient power to operate pumps.

The bread ration now is two-thirds of a pound daily, three times what it was under the Germans, and the quality of bread is the best Rome has had in years.

Black marketing is not as extensive as it was just before the Allied entry, but there still is plenty of it. At many restaurants one can get a good meal for $3 to $10, and many Allied soldiers pay the prices.

Prices of goods sold to Allied soldiers have tripled in many cases since the Fifth Army came into the city.

ALLIES ISSUE MONEY

With the Germans and Fascists rapidly printing paper money in the north and Allies recognizing such money as valid currency, inflation is under way.

The Allies have issued a vast amount of occupation money which is an obligation against the Italian treasury. The Italians generally have little confidence in any of the money now circulating.

Rome has a serious unemployment problem. The number of jobs is guessed at about 190,000, mostly white-collar workers.

Rome today is a city of contrasts—an extremely dreary place in some regards; in other respects gayer than in many years. Dancing, which the Fascists banned for the duration, has started again in some hotels and clubs.

The opera and theaters are running, and movie houses are doing a big business.

Policeman's Father Missing

Michael J. Fallon, 77, father of Patrolman Patrick J. Fallon of the Charlestown police station, has been missing from the home of his daughter, Mrs. Margaret Ellinger, Russell st., Charlestown, since June 28.

The aged man suffered a bad fall a year ago. He is described as 5 feet 7 inches tall, 150 pounds, thin gray hair, gold signet ring on third finger of right hand.

Barkley Looms In Second Place

WASHINGTON, July 13 (INS)—It looks like Roosevelt and Barkley.

Sen. Alben W. Barkley of Kentucky emerged today as a strong favorite for nomination as President Roosevelt's running mate.

High Democrats assert that the President, personally favoring re-nomination of Vice-President Wallace, has disclosed to them he will not seek to impose his personal wishes on the convention.

This means Barkley will likely be nominated, possibly on the first ballot. He is the overwhelming choice of Democratic congressional leaders and is favored by high New Dealers.

Girls Hear Dewey At Saratoga Springs

By LEO O'BRIEN

ALBANY, July 13 (INS)—Gov. Thomas E. Dewey, Republican presidential nominee, today enjoyed his first "breathing spell" of the week in his 15-hour-a-day round of conferences with party leaders and congressional candidates.

The Governor was to address 229 high school juniors attending the Empire Girls' State Camp at Saratoga Springs as the only important event of the day.

Gov. Dewey's acceptance of the invitation to address the girls indicated he may again emphasize the importance of youth in government. He promised in his acceptance speech that he, if elected, would appoint to his Cabinet capable persons "young enough to do the work."

The Republican nominee was reported highly pleased with the conference he has conducted so far this week. They indicated to him that the party is entering the campaign united, and also reflected a high degree of confidence on the part of Republican leaders in several states which have gone home.

Democratic in recent presidential elections, among them Massachusetts and Connecticut.

Gov. Dewey also gave his approval to the campaign plans being formulated by National Chairman Herbert Brownell, Jr.

With Saturday the deadline for state approval of the federal war ballot, if it is to be used, a delegation of 500 New York city residents was to join in Albany today with similar delegations from upstate cities in a demonstration designed to persuade Gov. Dewey he should accept the federal ballot.

Gov. Dewey sponsored the soldiers' vote law enacted by New York State last winter. He stated that the party is entering the campaign united, and also reflected a high degree of confidence on the part of Republican leaders in several states which have gone home.

Maine Trailer Fire Claims 17th Victim

SOUTH PORTLAND, Me., July 13 (AP)—Mrs. Rita Robertson, 24, succumbed to burns today to become the 17th victim of an Army plane's explosion in the midst of a war workers' trailer camp.

Eleven of 23 persons hospitalized with burns and other injuries remained at Portland's Maine General Hospital. Five were on the danger list.

Listed as dead were the plane's two occupants, Lt. Philip I. Russell, 23, South Portland, and S-Sgt. Wallace Mifflin, Seattle, and the following trailer occupants:

Edward A. Gerrish of Orono, his wife, Virginia, 26, and two of their four children, Roberta, 7, and Rose, 4.

Mrs. Hazel V. Little, 24, formerly of Houlton, and her two children, James, 4, and Nancy, 2.

Gordon Gorham, 42, formerly of Gorham, N. H., and his wife, 34. Clarence S. Hume, 38, of Linington, his wife, Edna, 33, and their son, John, 2.

George E. Robertson, Jr., nine months.

Jennie Allen, 32.

While funeral services were being arranged for the dead, Army officials from Grenier Field, Manchester, N. H., FBI men, representatives of the state attorney general's office and municipal officials continued probes of the crash.

Hedging Along

NEAR ST. LO, France, July 13 (AP)—The Allied advance in Normandy has been slowed by hedgerows, natural obstacles which must be reduced one at a time if the enemy makes a determined defense. One officer jests today:

"Our slogan is: The Russians in Paris, the British in Caen, and the Americans in St. Lo—by Christmas."

But once the Allies are out of the hedgerow country, many of the troops say, the Germans are going to need more than bicycles of get back to Berlin ahead of the Yanks.

Italian War Prisoners Here Warned on 'Strike'

A warning that repetition of their refusal to work might result in an Army order placing them on the same status as Nazi prisoners today sent a group of Italian war prisoners hurrying back to work after their refusal to labor overtime.

"There is no intention to coddle these men," declared Lt. Col. Walter E. Brown, First Service Command public relations officer. "They can easily be placed in the same category as the German prisoners and lose the privileges they now enjoy at Camp McKay."

The rebellious group staged a work stoppage at the Boston port of embarkation yesterday when they were ordered to work until 7 p. m. instead of quitting at the customary hour of 5:30.

Brown said the "strikers" were given what the Army describes as company punishment. He gave no details but Army disciplinary action under that heading usually takes the form of restriction of privileges for a short period or extra duty.

The Army spokesman stated there was no indication that outside influences had anything to do with the prisoners' refusal to work. Brown said it "apparently was due to a failure to understand fully the orders, possibly because of language differences."

Brown also indicated the "strikers" would probably be denied, at least for a time, the privilege of having visitors Sundays or participating in any of the entertainment programs provided for the McKay prison colony.

The Italian war prisoners were placed in a special category after Italy joined the United Nations' fight against the Axis, Brown explained. They swore to help in every way possible, short of bearing arms, in the battle against the common enemy, he said.

"That oath also includes a willingness to obey order from duly authorized superiors," he pointed out.

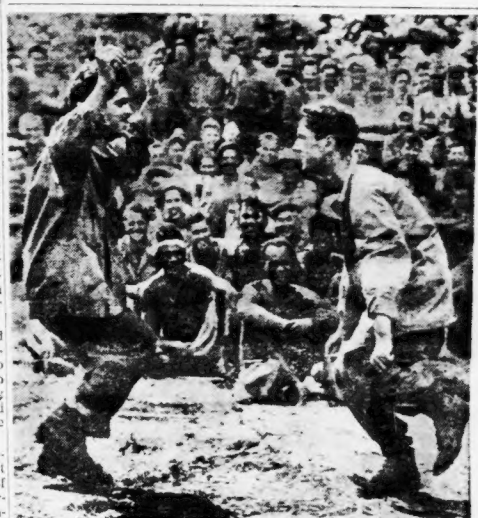

Brown said there was no question of extra pay for overtime involved. He said the men are paid $8 in cash on a monthly basis. He said there was no hourly or daily rate of pay for them anymore than there is, one for American soldiers.

The order for the prisoners to work beyond their 5:30 p. m. quitting time was issued in order that an emergency shipment could be loaded as quickly as possible.

Noxon Writes Letter To Wife From Cell

Accepting his confinement philosophically, John F. Noxon, Jr., began his first full day in the condemned men's row at State Prison today by writing a letter to his wife.

Warden Francis J. W. Langan said the letter detailed experiences on his train trip from Pittsfield and after entering the prison yesterday.

Meanwhile former Gov. Joseph B. Ely and defense counsel were preparing a Supreme Court appeal to save their client from the electric chair, and appeals for executive clemency continued to pour in to Gov. Saltonstall's office from all parts of the nation.

Warden Langan said Noxon, who was found guilty of the first degree murder of his abnormal infant son by a Berkshire county jury, was being treated as any other prisoner and had made no special requests.

After a good night's sleep, he had cereal, milk and coffee for breakfast and then read magazines from the prison library after finishing the letter to his wife.

Only one other prisoner is in the cell row with Noxon in the mobile and drove.

Cherry Hill section of the prison. He is Francis Criticus, Waltham soldier, who is under a death sentence for the murder of a Waltham mother.

Test Pilot for Nazis Wants to Aid France

MADRID, July 13 (AP)—Michel Detroyat, internationally known speed pilot who six weeks ago was chief test pilot for a French airplane factory near Paris working for the Germans, has arrived in Madrid assertedly anxious "to do something, somewhere, for France."

Detroyat was a $20,000 Thompson trophy race at Los Angeles in 1936.

Asked how he reached the frontier zone from Paris, Detroyat replied: "I just got into an auto."

Blood Vessels Constricted By Cigarettes, Experts Hold

CHICAGO, July 13 (AP)—John B. McDonald of the Army Medical Corps, and Charles Sheard, Ph.D., of the Mayo Clinic, the American Medical Ass'n new experiments in which they concluded that nicotine causes constriction of blood vessels.

They advise "the smoking of standard cigarettes should be avoided in the presence of peripheral-vascular disease," which involves smaller arteries.

"The habit of giving an injured soldier a cigarette is not advisable if arterial injury has occurred, as segmental spasm of the artery is common in such trauma and the vasoconstriction in a person sensitive to tobacco may cause irreparable damage," they added.

These conclusions were reported by Grace M. Roth, Ph.D.; Capt.

John B. McDonald of the Army Medical Corps, and Charles Sheard, Ph.D., of the Mayo Clinic, the American Medical Ass'n new experiments in which they concluded that nicotine causes constriction of blood vessels.

"When the subjects were resting in a supine position after smoking two standard cigarettes or French ashless cigarette paper with standard tobacco or standard cigarettes in a British cigarette filter holder, the cutaneous or skin temperatures of the extremities of all the subjects decreased," the authors said.

The changes included an increase in the rate of heart beat, they said, but changes were "negligible" after the smoking of corn silk cigarettes.

30-Plane Ace Reported Lost

WASHINGTON, July 13 (AP)—(Ma). James Goodson, Army Air Forces, credited unofficially with destruction of 30 German planes, is missing in action in the European theater, the War Department disclosed. The DSC holder is reported to have shot down 15 German planes in the air and destroyed 15 others on the ground.

A former resident of New York City, he is the son of Mrs. Gertrude Goodson of Toronto, Can.

World Fund Verdict Depends on Russia

BRETTON WOODS, N. H., July 13 (AP)—The world may know before this day ends whether 44 Allied nations really are on the road to placing before their legislative bodies concrete plans to pool some $18,000,000,000 in hope of assuring a brighter future.

Actually today's action at the United Nations monetary conference—generally expected to be favorable—involves less than half the amount of that pool. It concerns a projected $8,000,000,000-plus monetary fund designed to stabilize postwar currencies and help nations keep their foreign trade positions in balance.

The results, however, will smooth the way for similar action on a contemplated $10,000,000,000 world bank intended to stimulate the flow of money to be needed in repairing war devastation and opening new areas of agricultural and industrial development.

Delegates assembling for a conference session waited first for an answer to this question: Has Moscow replied yet to this country's "very strong" request that Russia take a final stand on the proportionate amount of gold she is willing to put into the suggested monetary fund?

The point is vital because upon its settlement largely hinges the entire issue of quotas in both the monetary fund and the world bank.

Ringling Suits Near $1,000,000

HARTFORD, Ct., July 13 (AP)—With the Ringling Brothers' and Barnum and Bailey circus in the hands of a receiver, damage suits against the corporation mounted toward the million dollar mark today.

Deaths yesterday of Mrs. Helen Gray, 65, of Providence, and Mrs. Jarvis N. Mason, 35, of West Hartford, brought the fire toll to 162.

Many suits named the city of Hartford as co-defendant. In at least one other, Fire Chief John C. King and Fire Marshal Henry G. Thomas were named.

The receiver has been authorized to take possession of all the circus' equipment in this state including 79 railroad flatcars and coaches; its wagons; its animals and all books, papers, evidence of debt and property, and to collect all monies owing to it and to take over any cash assets within the state.

Arlington Soldier Killed

Sgt. Donald C. Tedford of Paul Revere rd., Arlington, a paratrooper, was killed in action in Normandy June 13, the War Department informed his mother, Mrs. Hilda C. Tedford.

Mrs. Gorman Rites Tomorrow

Funeral services for Mrs. Teresa M. Gorman, who died yesterday after a short illness, will be held tomorrow from her home, 466 Columbia rd., Dorchester, followed by a solemn high mass of requiem in St. Monica's church, South Boston, at 9 a. m.

Mrs. Gorman, a former resident of South Boston, was the sister of Edward J. Gaffney, prominent Boston contractor and James F. Gaffney, district chief of the War Production Board in Boston.

Burial will be in Calvary cemetery, Dorchester.

Captives Must Share Food With Nazis

ALGERIES, July 13 (AP)—A letter from a French prisoner to relatives in Algiers states that Germany is forcing some Allied war prisoners to share their parcels of clothing and foodstuffs with Germany needy.

The letter has been turned over to Henri Frenay, French commissioner for war prisoners, who plans to register a complaint with the Swiss government, France's protecting power inside Germany.

The parcels are distributed through the International Red Cross. The letter was dispatched through Nazi censorship.

Industry Death Toll Almost That of War

WASHINGTON, July 13 (AP)—The National Safety Council soon will publish a report showing 18,000 workers were killed on job accidents in 1943.

This gruesome toll for only one year is almost as great as the total number of deaths—20,362—reported to date since Pearl Harbor by the Navy, Marine Corps and Coast Guards.

End---and How!

KANSAS CITY, July 13 (AP) A calendar—with each day up to the end of Oct., 1944, carefully marked—was found in the effects of a German prisoner of war, reports Lt. Col. Loyd Shafer, commandant of the Ft. Riley, Kans., prison camp.

At the last mark, he said there was the notation "end of the war."

The prisoner declined to say which side he thought would win.

With N. E. Boys Overseas LST Crew Tells of 40,000-Mile Trip

By HUCK FINNEGAN

SOMEWHERE IN ENGLAND—A landing ship tank, anchored in a British port, has traversed 40,000 miles of Atlantic, Mediterranean and Indian Ocean waters since it was commissioned in May, 1943. It was manned by Coastguardmen who believed it was a record-making run, "especially for a landing craft," added Lt. John A. Salt, 42-year-old skipper. (Isn't Coast Guard a misnomer?) Chief Specialist Nat Sperber, like a true tub-thumper called the press and rounded up the Bay Staters in the crew. Chief Mo-

Carr put four years in the Navy from '21 to '25, then went to work in the railroad engine house, Southampton st., South Boston, and remained there until he enlisted in the Coast Guard two years ago. He is one of the three original members of the crew.

BROTHER IS ARMY

Nagy served from '26 to '28 on a destroyer, drove a moving van for Hill's Transportation in Natick, re-enlisted the day before Pearl Harbor. His wife Viola and daughter Patricia Mary, 13, are in Natick. Nagy joined the LST crew July 12, 1943. He has a brother, Steve, 32, in the Army overseas. Glynn is a handsome youngster who graduated from Charlestown High before his family moved to Dorchester. He has two brothers in the service—Tom, 23, in Italy, and Arthur, 28, in the Persian Gulf Command. He served two hitchies in the CCC and worked in a Dorchester machine shop before enlisting.

"I always wanted to see the world, but I've got my fill of traveling now," he admitted. "I'll be willing to settle down after this is over." He told of a bomb that landed on the ship at Calcutta. "It didn't explode," he said. "If it had, few of us would be here today."

Cahill attended Boston Trade where he played on the '43 hockey team which nearly won the city title. ("Commerce beat us in the last game, letting English win.") He chummed around Crescent st. with Billy Mack, Bobby Feeney, Sonny Pike, Jack Pyne and Gene Vecchia. All are in the service but Mack.

Modest Wee Bustle In Fashion for Fall

By DOROTHY ROE

Associated Press Fashion Editor

NEW YORK, July 13—Something had to be done to that straight-and-narrow WPB silhouette, so New York designers have added a bustle to brighten up the fall horizon.

It's only a modest little bustle, it's true, sometimes in the form of a stiff bow, sometimes a series of fish-tail ruffles at the center back of the lowered waistline. But it's a direct descendant of the militant bustle of grandmother's day, and as such has vast possibilities.

GOLD COIN BUTTONS

Jo Copeland, the designer who made the cocktail suit famous, shows the bustle silhouette in various ways, as a black faille bow on a black crepe dress, as a pop-lum flare at the back of a jacket, as a puffy satin bow on the skirt of a cocktail suit.

Miss Copeland likes to trim her after-five fashions this year with big gold coin buttons, adds discreet glitter to gracefully draped afternoon dresses, shows cocktail frocks with hip pockets embroidered in gold bullion.

Clarepotter, noted for her all-American clothes, prescribes decorative slacks suits for around-the-house lounging or at-home dining, scores a smash hit with a black velvet outfit of slacks and jacket with full slashed sleeves, revealing the contrasting color of the blouse beneath.

NO-ALTERATION DRESS

She tosses a boon to hard-to-fit females with her no-alteration dress, made with a wrap-around sarong type skirt which can be adjusted to the size of the wearer simply by tying the waistband.

Notable in the Clarepotter collection also are her mashed polka dots, large egg-shaped dots applied on crepe dresses and blouses with telling effect.

This designer also endorses the stocking cap for sports wear, shows it in elongated versions hanging below the neckline with outdoors outfits of gray flannel slacks, jenkins and skirts.

17 Dogs in Chicago Pound Rescued by Public Sale

Special to Boston Evening American

CHICAGO, July 12—Seventeen dogs, rescued from the city pound at a public sale, are assured affection and care. One of them was reclaimed by a happy boy, the others were bought. There were 22 homeless dogs offered for sale.

Four of the pets were bought by dog-loving Chicagoans, and 12 were purchased on behalf of the Legion Against Vivisection, Inc., of New York city.

The New York group sent a check for $100 to the Herald-American, directing that it be used to buy unwanted dogs and asking that they be turned over to the anti-cruelty society for disposal.

A Herald-American reporter attended the sale and bought 12 dogs with the $100 provided.

One will be given to 12-year-old Walter Gabriel of 2513 North Mozart st., who, boy-like, made friends with nearly all the dogs shown at yesterday's sale. He wanted one of them so badly, but didn't have the money. So

Today Walter will have the dog of his choice, thanks to the fund advanced by the New York anti-vivisection group.

"How I really do Stop Underarm Perspiration and Odor

(and save up to 50%)

"My career is glamour," says enchanting DANA JENNEY

"Being a Cover Girl is a dream job" — says alluring, successful Dana Jenney. "But I have to be right down to earth about keeping exquisite under the torrid heat of photographers' lamps. So I was thrilled when I found a deodorant that really did keep my underarms dry — Odorono Cream!"

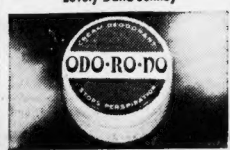

"Every girl will like the things I like about Odorono Cream. It contains a really effective perspiration stopper that closes the tiny underarm sweat glands and keeps them closed up to 3 days!"

"It's safe for the expensive dresses I model — just follow directions. You can tell it contains soothing emollients because it's non-irritating even after shaving. And you get up to 21 more applications for 36¢ than other leading deodorants give!"

"Try velvety, fragrant Odorono Cream. See if you don't agree with me and other Cover Girls that it's a wonderful way to keep glamour from wilting!"

German Prisoners Harvest Cape Crops

CAMP EDWARDS, July 13—Here in an adequately guarded stockade, not unlike any other in a U. S. Army camp, several hundred German prisoners of war, all former members of Hitler's famed Afrika Korps, captured at Tunisia, are helping supplement a manpower shortage.

Under the command of Lt. Col. Victor W. Phelps of New Haven,

Lt. Col. Phelps said these men, once the pride and joy of the Nazi youth movement, are doing essential work throughout this vast army reservation and, when the occasion warrants, are taken outside to harvest local crops.

Only two weeks ago they helped harvest the almost doomed Cape Cod strawberry crop. Next Fall, perhaps, they will be transferred to other regions to harvest potatoes or other vital food.

The prisoners must work. "No work no eat," is the way Col. Phelps puts it. While these Germans are given restriction privileges and fed as well as our own soldiers and housed in similar quarters, they are by no means pampered.

"No, there is no coddling of these men," Col. Phelps emphasized. "They work six days a week, eight hours a day at essential labor, relieving the manpower shortage all along the line."

Their pay is 80 cents a day, and in addition they receive a daily allowance of 10 cents. Most of this they spend in their own canteen for GI "Beer," "Perfumeries" and "Sodawasser," as the signs read in German along the canteen walls.

The prisoners, by secret ballot, are allowed to elect their own Fuhrer or Logspeaker (spokesman).

Friends of B. C. Open Fund Drive

Friends of Boston College have launched a drive for $250,000 to enable the 81-year-old institution to carry on through a war era which has seen enrollment shrink from 1700 to 360 students.

More than 4300 Boston College sons are in the armed services, according to P. A. O'Connell, Boston merchant who is chairman of a special gifts committee sponsoring the drive.

"Despite tight economies, necessary expenditures have far exceeded income in the last two years," O'Connell said.

Boston College has no great endowment, it has no rich patrons, it has exceedingly few graduates who are men of large independent means.

Roosevelt, Churchill To Confer on French

By JOHN H. HIGHTOWER

WASHINGTON, July 13 (AP)—A meeting between President Roosevelt and Prime Minister Churchill may come about before long, the way cleared in part by the President's dramatic revision of French policy to permit practical co-operation with Gen. de Gaulle.

The problem of Anglo-American relations with de Gaulle's National Committee of Liberation has been one of the most difficult ever to trouble the course of affairs handled jointly by Washington and London.

The President and the Prime Minister have at various times been fairly close together in their desire not to recognize the committee as a provisional government, but Churchill's position has been complicated by the fact his own foreign office has long favored recognition and by indications this attitude in recent months has become increasingly widespread throughout the British government.

Had this recognition issue remained in a highly unsettled condition with Allied armies in France, it would undoubtedly have colored all the discussions by the two leaders.

No time for these talks has been indicated. The President, however, has hinted at two new conferences that he expects to see the Prime Minister this summer, or fall and that he would probably make the trip to Britain this time.

SKETCHED ON THE FARM OF ARNOLD STORK
A HOOD PRODUCER FOR OVER 10 YEARS

Oh, what a beautiful morning!

Just a quick glance at Arnold Stork's milk production record for last month shows he's not taking much time off to enjoy the beauties of nature on his dairy farm. As Mr. Stork told us a few days ago, "With farm help so hard to get and the demand for milk still increasing, I have to be right on the job 'way before sunrise in order to get my work done by sunset."

The next time you open a bottle of Hood's Milk, think of Arnold Stork and the other patriotic New England farmers who are working long, gruelling hours to bring you this essential wartime food. And remember—use every drop of your pure, fresh Hood's Milk wisely!

JULIE HOBLITZELL is another post-deb who gets up at the crack of dawn to get to her war job and still manages to retain her cheery smile and vivacious manner for hostessing servicemen at the Stage Door Canteen, Buddies Club and Waban Neighborhood Club.

By day she's driving a chisel at the Army Base, helping to load the ships that carry food and supplies to the boys overseas. It's a grand job especially in the summer for it keeps her out in the sunshine and gives her a chance to make some good pocket money besides.

This work, incidentally, is popular with a number of society girls including Sue Bradford and Barbara Ann Paine Laughlin who was married recently and gave up her job for keeping house.

Julie came out at the fall dance at the Sheraton in the fall of '42 and has done quite a bit of Red Cross work. She and her parents live on Commonwealth ave.

Saipan May Free Prisoners of Japs

By RAY RICHARDS

Boston Evening American Washington Bureau

WASHINGTON, July 13—Thousands of Japanese civilians captured on Saipan may be traded for all American civilian prisoners in Japan's hands.

Official circles confirmed the belief this country finally has been dealt a trump in the war prisoner game with Japan.

Saipan has a civilian population of about 25,000, and it is believed nearly all fell into the hands of the American forces. A statement of the exact number is expected shortly from Adm. Nimitz.

Although Japan wipes from the rolls as disgraced the names of captured military men, she has invariably exhibited high solicitude for Japanese civilians in enemy captivity, said an informant in close touch with the war prisoner situation.

After two civilian exchanges, Japan now holds fewer than 10,000 American civilians, and it is understood a proposal will be made for the delivery of all the Saipan civilians, the first big bag of its kind made by the Americans, in return for all the American civilians seized in the Far East.

Although no formal statements were issued, there was unconcealed jubilation in official quarters over the new opportunity to break the dead silence with which Japan has received all recent American overtures for a further exchange of civilians.

The obstacle has existed in the fact the U. S. has had nothing with which to bargain, it was admitted.

Hope still is low for betterment in the condition of American prisoners before an invasion of Japan's territory frees those who still live. They are not exchangeable under the rules of war.

South Battles Infantile Wave

By the Associated Press

As North Carolina and Kentucky reported more than 400 cases of infantile paralysis, medical authorities of all southern states were tightening regulations to keep the outbreak to a minimum.

Every southeastern state has sent volunteer Red Cross nurses into North Carolina, where 270 cases are reported, in addition to at least 13 deaths. Kentucky reported 129 cases, four deaths.

Mid-July through early September is the highest danger period for infantile paralysis, medical authorities reported.

"What are you doing up there, Fat," Fay admonished. "Get right on home."

The dog went directly to Fay's residence.

Women Will Improve Our Juries

TWENTY-NINE STATES of the Union have amended their laws to permit women to serve on juries.

Massachusetts should be the thirtieth State to make this necessary and thoroughly American concession.

An unfortunate accident deprived Massachusetts of the honor of being the first State to have women jurors.

When the legislators amended the election laws to include women they neglected to change the jury service laws.

Consequently, women of the Bay State are ONLY PARTIALLY EMANCIPATED.

They are the equals of their husbands, brothers and fathers in all elections—municipal, county, State and Federal.

But they are NOT the equals of the men in any tribunal.

In fact, so far as juries are concerned, women rate on a par with children, morons, aliens and convicts.

This unfair and unjust situation has been tolerated for more than two decades, partly because the people did not fully understand it and partly because the political type of politician persisted in obscuring the issue with nonsensical arguments.

For instance, every time a bill granting jury service to women has been considered on Beacon Hill some Senator or Representative has always made it a habit and business to say:

"We cannot expose our fair womanhood to the stark realities of life. We must not allow them in our courts where they would hear things they would never hear in their kitchens."

Politicians conveniently forget that women have been facing "the stark realities of life" since the beginning of the world without harm to themselves and with great benefit to civilization.

Politicians also forget that we have WOMEN judges, WOMEN clerks, WOMEN lawyers and WOMEN spectators in our courts.

Women thus see and hear everything that transpires.

But, according to the politicians, it would be downright sinful for them to see and hear the same things as jurors.

THE TIME to eliminate such prudish hypocrisy has come.

Women have demonstrated their capabilities in every department of government.

They are operating many of our most important and prosperous industries.

They have distinguished themselves in all professions and particularly in medicine, where they are responsible for some of the greatest discoveries of recent years.

They have gone into all branches of the armed forces, eagerly and willingly sharing the risks and hardships with men.

They are working shoulder to shoulder with their husbands and brothers on the production lines, providing the materials and weapons required to win the war.

They have inspired at least 75 per cent of the nation's humanitarian laws.

WOMEN have thus demonstrated their ability to improve our jury system and to enlighten and elevate our entire judicial structure.

They will make our trials more honest and honorable, and infinitely more responsive and responsible to all the people—to women as well as to men.

We would not consider a household operated by men exclusively for men to be a suitable or satisfactory home.

Why, then, should we continue, year after year, to be content with equally lopsided juries?

WASHINGTON, July 13—Senator W. Lee O'Daniel, of Texas, is not a New Dealer, but he seems like a pretty decent citizen, good to his family and reasonably clean-shaven, so I speak to him anyway.

I was speaking to him when word arrived that Franklin D. Roosevelt had finally consented to run for re-election.

Senator O'Daniel sat silently a moment as if in deep perplexity. Then he murmured: "I wonder who won him over?"

I WILL RETURN to Sen. O'Daniel in a moment, but first I want to tell you about what happened to a White House correspondent. The minute he got released from F. D. R.'s private sanctum with the "I'll run" announcement, this reporter scrambled to a telephone and called his paper.

He was breathless and jabbering, but finally he got it out. Then he gurgled some more when his editor said:

"Is that all you have to report? Listen—we have a paper shortage here, so we'll have to stick to news!"

SEN. O'DANIEL, as you know, is working day and night to coax Democrats away from Roosevelt. He is putting out a paper, "The W. Lee O'Daniel News," which prints the most blasting things about the New Deal.

Senator O'Daniel is a Democrat from away back, but he avers you can't be both a good Democrat and a New Dealer. The New Deal, he declares, has about as much relation to democracy as a ratiocinator has to a rat-catcher.

O'Daniel informed me he was trying to show the people that private enterprise and individual initiative are doomed in America unless the New Deal is knocked off.

"Our children will have no future," he said. "The New Deal talks about what it will do for the boys when they're grown, but all they are really promising is a meal ticket."

"There will be no more great industrial careers for poor boys. No one will be able to start on a shoestring like Henry Ford—because the New Deal will snuff the shoestring. 'The road of opportunity will be closed.'"

ONCE AGAIN I am hollering copper. I am tipping off the Attorney General to two more gambling joints.

One is the War Department. The other is the Executive Offices at the White House!

In both places lotteries are being conducted. Chances are being sold on War Bond raffles. Just so there can be no possible misunderstanding I am wholeheartedly in favor of this kind of criminality. Raffles are selling millions of dollars worth of extra War Bonds all over the country.

I WISH to report there is probably nothing more startling than to be in the awesome dignity of a courtroom and suddenly hear one of the learned barristers yell, "Cheese cake!"

I was down at the Esquire trial when this happened. Bruce Bromley, the publication's advocate, or mouthpiece, was discussing fine points of law. It was pretty dull and the customers were half asleep, when Bromley changed pitch.

"Cheese cake!" he shouted,

"They say our art is cheese cake! I ask the court to look at these!"

Bromley picked up a bunch of other magazines. "They say we are cheese cake," he continued. "But these magazines have no class, no taste, no style. Yet the Postmaster General wants to deprive us of ours!"

I gathered that Bromley thinks Esquire is more high-toned than the other magazines he displayed.

"They have said we are in the same class as these publications!" he cried. "We should sue for slander!"

THE WORD "cheese cake" was ticked around all day. Although it has been told many times before I would like to recount how it is supposed to have achieved its present artistic meaning.

As ancient, and historically, minded photographers tell it, there used to be a ship's nose cameraman in New York who was passionately devoted to cheese cake—the original, or bakeshop kind. Whenever he saw anything he liked he always called it cheese cake.

Among things he liked were shapely young ladies who posed on dock rails in an interesting manner. Any time he spotted one of these he hollered "cheese cake!"—and all the other photographers, who knew his preferences, came running!

I HAVE FOUGHT my baser nature all day, and have achieved a great moral victory. I will not comment on Mrs. Eleanor Roosevelt's statement that she knew nothing of her husband's decision to run again!

Gosh, I'm a man of iron!

of a policeman is portrayed in a radio play, he has an Irish brogue. That is a very odd, fashion-like character. I don't believe there is a man on the New York police force at this time that has an Irish brogue, nor on the Boston, Chicago, Detroit or San Francisco police forces.

QUERIES AND CLIENTS:

Q—You never did a hard day's work in your life, did you? A—Mister, I could become very irritated because of your question, but I shall control myself. I was a boy I worked on the Pennsylvania Railroad, so I got off to an early start on days of hard work. I also worked on a farm. Also worked as a waiter, hotel clerk and truck driver. As a matter of fact, I worked at so many hard jobs and under such a wide variety of Simon Legrees when I was a very young fellow that my great ambition in life became to get an easy job.

PLEASE NOTE: The pilotless plane idea was offered to the British in 1940. Was turned down as being a form of "barbaric warfare." The United Nations know how to make robot planes. Suppose the mass production facilities of the United States and Britain are used to make such planes. Where would the Japs and Nazis be then? Why, sir, our side could darken the skies over Tokyo and Berlin with robot planes in a very short time.

ASIDES: "Don't You Love Your Daddy, Too," is suggested as an addition to the list of songs for Father's Day. Sounds to me like a torch song for fathers. A kind of a pathetic plea by papa for recognition. However, I suppose there is many a father who feels like that at times. . . . Silk worms are being grown in Texas. Is claimed that State has the world's best climate for silk worm growing. Many years ago an attempt was made to start a silk worm growing industry in California, but it failed. Not because worms couldn't be grown in California, but because the growers found it impossible to compete with the Japanese silk worm industry.

Hollywood Today

By Louella O. Parsons

HOLLYWOOD, July 13—Richard Gully, who is somewhere in France, sent me a German mine marker, a triangular piece of yellow material with a black skull and bones. The marker, he says, is tied to a stick to warn German soldiers and French civilians of mines. "Some-times we advance so quickly," said Richard, "that the Germans don't have time to remove them."

Gully also sent me a copy of Jane Wyman in "The Stars and Stripes," dated Carentan, France, June 23, containing the following interesting article: "This town's only movie house, Le Jeanne d'Arc, which for the last four years provided entertainment for German soldiers and their girl friends, last night housed more than 1000 paratroopers for the first film show staged in a theater for Americans in France. Where a couple of weeks ago the Jerves were seeing Mogda Schneider and Heinz Engelmann in the Nazi-produced 'Jeunes Filles,' the Yanks enjoyed themselves a helluva lot more looking and laughing at Mickey Rooney (now Pvt. Rooney) in 'Andy Hardy's Blonde Trouble.' The movie is owned by Marc Mouchel-Cafonne, 30-year-old English speaking Frenchman, who enthusiastically declared it was 'a pleasure, nonseers' to open the theater for the 'parachutes'."

ANDY STONE has a big enough bankroll now to pay any top star in the business. Only a little more than a year making independent pictures, Andy has done all right with "Sensations of 1945" and before that "Hi Diddle Diddle," so he'll pay a top price for a star for "Bedside Manner," the Robert Carson story of a woman doctor in a small town, which appeared in a current magazine. He has a new deal with United Artists which ranks with any deal held with any other producer. Amazing the way this motion picture business of our changes from year to year.

THAT FINE OLD Texas Ranger, Brian Aherne, will not go Western in his next movie, "High Among the Stars." Remember last week we told you that Brian was bustin' his buttons ever since the Governor of Texas made him a ranger (Ginger Rogers is the only other thespian Ranger). He's always favored the great outdoors, as witness his divorce settlement with Joan Fontaine when Brian took their Palm Springs ranch and gave Joan the home in Beverly Hills. "High Among the Stars" is the Charles Rogers movie with Jane Powell and Susan Hayward in the femme leads.

JANE WYMAN is suddenly hotter than a fire cracker at Warners. Several years ago she was so dissatisfied that she was talking of breaking her contract. But now, instead of being a stepchild, a search is on for starring vehicles for her. That's because of "Doughgirls" and other movies she has made. There were so many laughs at this comedy at the preview, that the lines were lost—but Jane wasn't. I am particularly proud of her because I have always considered her sort of a prodigy since she and Ronald Reagan went on my first personal appearance tour with me.

NEXT TO FALLING her to an easy million dollars, most young actors had rather make a picture with Ingrid Bergman than anything else. That's why Donald Curtis is a lucky boy. He gets the third spot in "The House of Edwards" with Ingrid and Gregory Peck. At first I didn't place Curtis until someone jogged my memory that he had been in "Selfie, Private Hargrove," and he is even more importantly featured in "Son of Lassie." He is a feet four, 24 years old and in attractive young man.

A LINE OR TWO: Dick Arlen has put a chunk of his hard-earned cash into the film rights of "The Life of Billy Mitchell." He plans to form an independent company to make it and I hear United Artists is very interested in Dick's idea. Gail Patrick had oneday with her bridegroom, Lt. Arnold White, after they were married in Jacksonville, Fla. Lt. White's leave was up and Gail had commitments at the hospital, but she joins him in Miami as soon as her tour is finished. . . Listen to this: Universal is making a serial and it's going to have all the action and excitement of the old-time "Continued Next Week" numbers. . . A note written by Capt. Allen, serving in the Medical Corps overseas, was on Japanese note paper. Said the captain, who is a friend of my favorite doctor: "Pardon the note paper—mine is all gone and I took this away from a Jap who won't be needing it where he is going."

SNAPSHOTS OF HOLLYWOOD COLLECTED AT RANDOM: When Helen Walker got her stolen car back she forgot to take it off the "stolen car" list. Result—she was picked up twice by the police and hauled down to the bastille before she got things straightened out: Martha Kemp (Mature) recuperating at St. John's in Santa Monica, following an emergency appendectomy: Clark Gable has discovered golf, and vice versa, and he's now a wild-eyed addict: Johnny Downs and his wife expect their third child in September: One of Mildred Harris Chaplin's closest friends called to say that she is seriously ill in Cedars of Lebanon Hospital: Madeleine Le Beau has received a Vatican message that her family, in France, is finally reunited after being separated since the Nazi invasion: One of the really great femme stars of the silent days is now driving a taxicab in Hollywood: Betty Hutton has bought Johnny Hyde's house: Capt. Louis Hayward feeling well enough to go night clubbing with Ida Lupino: Lilian Castle, little 81-year-old extra woman working on "A Tree Grows You-Know-Where," has just finished knitting her five thousandth helmet for the boys overseas.

Cookies, Rolls

By RUTH MUGGLEBEE

TRY AS HARD as you might . . . you can't get away from the need of keeping and looking fresh with frequent cleansings . . . especially when the sun is high in the heavens . . . and little beads of perspiration insist on trickling down your cheeks to mar and streak your makeup.

True you can't carry the cream put with you all the time . . . to free the face from accumulated soot and stickiness and the day's caking . . . although frequent facial washings are both a necessity and a boon for continued good complexion.

But, you can do the next best thing. You can carry a small container with little cleansing pads . . . saturated with freshening cosmetic cleanser that will do the trick in a jiffy and just as effectively as a labored routine.

It is a new idea . . . this jar with pads chock-full of a popper-upper . . . and a few may be removed as the need arises and carried in a plastic container . . . in your purse . . . or kept in your office desk. The product . . . created by a select house . . . is one of those boon beauty aids which every girl needs these days.

All you do is whip out a pad . . . when the heat is making itself felt on your complexion . . . and whisk it across your complexion for a clean grooming and refreshed outlook . . . for the pad contains not only a cleansing cream but a freshening agent as well . . . to do double-duty when time is of the essence for a two-in-one beauty job.

For the name of these new-idea cleansing and facial fresheners, phone the Beauty Dept., Liberty 4000, or write me, care of the Boston Evening Envelope, inclosing a stamped, self-addressed envelope.

My Day By Mrs. Eleanor Roosevelt

NEW YORK CITY, Wednesday—Yesterday was a rather warm day in Dayton, O., and I felt very guilty as the officers took me around Wright and Patterson Fields. It was very exciting and even the heat couldn't dampen the interest I felt in the work which is done at both fields.

Gen. Meyers, at Wright Field, and Gen. Duncan, at Patterson Field, certainly planned a most interesting tour for me. You might be interested to know that 46 per cent of the civilian employees at Patterson Field are women.

I lunched with the WACs, 300 strong, in their mess-hall and it was a very good lunch. Everybody told me how much they wanted to have more WACs and how deeply they regretted that they were not being recruited more rapidly. Certainly the women who are in the military services ought to be proud of the estimate that high-ranking officers have made as to their usefulness.

GERMANY'S spy system has always been good, and they must know that their chance for victory is gone. They may feel that the morale of their people at home requires the use of the robot bomb, but it seems to me to be a wanton cruelty and an unnecessary building up of bitterness in a people who, on the whole, are inclined to be generous to their foes. Germany should remember that those who are slow to wrath, when finally stirred, are apt to be very implacable enemies.

This robot bomb, which cannot be aimed at military objectives and which hits indiscriminately at civilians, strikes me as more of a boomerang than anything which Germany has done in a long time.

By 4 o'clock yesterday, I was at Antioch College at Yellow Springs, Ohio, and went with Dr. and Mrs. Arthur Morgan to the assembly hall, where I gave a brief summary of my evening talk.

Keep Trimmings White

By BETTINA BEDWELL

WHEN you buy your clothes you take on the responsibility of their upkeep in the style to which the designers have accustomed them.

This is the opinion of Rise Stevens, famed soprano and movie star. It is likewise the opinion of this column.

If you get a dress with a lot of white touches, it's your job and duty to keep said white touches in perfect white beauty most of the time. So in hot weather if you simply can't see that white details are washed daily better not go in for them. Nothing makes you look more depressing in July and August than a dress with soiled white details. To it. If the white details are washed daily better not go in for them. Nothing makes you look more depressing in July and August than a dress with soiled white details. To it. If the white details are washed daily better not go in for them. Nothing makes you look more depressing in July and August than a dress with soiled white details. To it.

But, for the hurried girl or woman it is better to have light and dainty touches in the shape of gloves, hankies, hats and jewelry, which are independent of the dress and can be kept in shape more easily.

GUESTS, like thunder showers, are apt to appear suddenly in the summer, and the wise homemaker will have a few tricks up her sleeve to give quickly prepared meals a little extra flourish.

A few rolls of refrigerator cookies, or a batch of refrigerator dough can be kept on hand, sliced or molded and whipped into the oven in a few minutes. By the time the rest of the meal is prepared, the rolls or cookies will be ready to add their fragrant goodness, and will give the meal the appearance of having had hours of preparation.

CORN FLAKE REFRIGERATOR COOKIES

1/2 cup shorten- 1/2 cups sifted
ing flour
1/2 cup sugar 2 tsp. baking
1 tsp. grated powder
1/2 tsp. salt 1/2 tsp. salt
2 cups corn 1-3 cup milk
flakes

Blend shortening and sugar thoroughly; add orange rind. Crush corn flakes into fine crumbs. Sift flour, baking powder and salt together; mix with crumbs. Add to first mix; turn alternately with milk and mix well. Shape dough into rolls about 1 1/2 inches in diameter. Wrap in waxed paper and chill until firm. Slice and bake on ungreased baking sheets in moderately hot oven (425 deg. F.) about 12 minutes. Makes 5 dozen cookies.

Note: Dough may be chilled, then rolled and cut into fancy shapes, if desired.

CRUNCHY REFRIGERATOR COOKIES

3/4 cups sifted 1/2 cup powdered cake flour 1/2 cups
3/4 tsp. baking 1/2 tsp. baking powder 1/2 tsp. soda
1/2 tsp. salt 1/2 egg well
1/2 cup sugar beaten
1 tsp. cinnamon 1-3 cup shorten-
1/2 tsp. ginger ing

Sift together dry ingredients 3 times. Combine egg, shortening, and molasses. Add flour mixture gradually, while stirring, and blend well. Cover bowl and chill several hours or overnight in refrigerator. Shape into 1 1/2 inch balls. Roll in sugar. Bake on greased or oil cookie sheets in a moderate hot oven of 375 deg. F. for 10 minutes. Makes 5 dozen cookies.

PARKER HOUSE ROLLS

1 cup milk 6 cups sifted
1 cup sugar 1/2 cup flour
1 tsp. salt 6 tbsp. melted
1 cake yeast shortening
1 cup lukewarm water

Scald milk, add sugar and salt; cool to lukewarm. Dissolve yeast in lukewarm water and add to lukewarm milk. Add 3 cups flour and beat until perfectly smooth. Add melted shortening and remaining flour, or enough to make easily handled dough. Knead well. Place in greased bowl. Cover and set in warm place, free from draft. Let rise until doubled in bulk, about 1 1/2 hours. Roll out 3-8 inch thick, and cut with 2 1/2 inch biscuit cutter. Crease heavily through center with dull edge of knife and brush very lightly with melted butter. Fold over in pocketbook shape. Place close together in well-greased shallow pans. Cover and let rise until light, about 1 hour. Bake in hot oven at 425 deg. F. about 20 minutes. Makes 4 dozen.

REFRIGERATOR ROLLS

Follow directions for Parker House Rolls. When doubled in bulk, punch dough down in bowl; brush lightly with melted shortening. Cover well and place in refrigerator until needed. To use, cut off as much dough as desired. Punch dough down. Shape into rolls and place on greased pans. Cover and let rise in warm place, free from draft, until doubled in bulk. Bake in hot oven at 425 deg. F. about 15 to 20 minutes. The dough may be kept 4 to 5 days in refrigerator and baked as desired.

FRESH AS A DAISY and ready for . . . well for anything that may come along . . . that is, your complexion must be fresh and clean at all times . . . with that indefinable sparkle of wholesomeness . . . comparable to the winning facial winsomeness of 20th Century starlet Trudy Marshall . . . and a new-idea freshening pad . . . many, many of them in a sealed tight jar . . . will do the trick.

Wife Is Home-Bound

"DEAR MISS FAIRFAX: Our home consists of my husband, 35, myself, 28, and three children. We've been married 10 years. My husband is a hard worker, spending 10 hours a day on six days a week at his job. He brings his check home to me, never grumbles or runs around with other women.

"We have a small flat and don't owe any bills. My husband is good to the children, never abuses me, and stays home nights. My trouble is I don't have any recreation. I'd like to get away from the four walls of home for even a few hours, but my husband doesn't want me to go to church, or to visit a friend, or even do a little hospital aide work. If I attempted to do any of these things, he would ignore me for days.

I've even thought of putting the children in a day nursery and getting a job. We don't need the money, but it would break this frightful monotony. If I did that, he'd leave me. My family don't want to interfere in my affairs. I'm about at my rope's end.

A man who objects to his wife going out of the house, even to church, to see a friend or do some helpful work in a war-torn world, would do well to consider his children, and the effect such a mother will have on them.

She can't help being dull, behind the times and can't meet her own boys and girls and exchange ideas on what they've learned in school.

Children get their first impressions of life from their mother. A mistake to have them feel superior and regard her only as a household drudge.

Guard Your Tongue Ladies!

The girl who wants to make a good impression on a man isn't very bright if she is critical of anyone when she is with him. He may be the constructive-thinking kind of person who is interested in, likes to comment on, and likes to hear other people comment on, the good points of people. So critical comments may make him shudder lest she may, some day, "turn on" him.—Mrs. Beeckman

Broadway

By Dorothy Kilgallen

NEW YORK, July 13—To Theresa Helburn, of the Theatre Guild, goes much of the credit for the success of such Broadway hits as "Porgy and Bess," "Othello" and "Oklahoma!" Young playwrights are always asking her advice, and she is well qualified to give it . . . D. K.

THERESA HELBURN SAYS: I was one of the early students of Professor Baker's English 47 way back in the old days at Harvard. But I must confess also that I was one of his most unsuccessful graduates. When aspiring playwrights come to me with sad stories of how they stormed the Broadway battlements so long and so vainly, I listen indulgently, but I am not moved to tears because I am a battle-scarred veteran myself. I waited eight years for one production and 20 years for another, and, even after waiting all this time, the plays weren't successful.

Of course, they failed for reasons over which I had no control. Nothing to do with the plays themselves! It was always the fault of the actors or the management or the critics! Perhaps I abandoned playwriting and became a producer just so I could take it out on other playwrights. Who knows? Anyway, from the moment I took up my duties as executive of the guild, I never wrote another word of my own, but quite a number of other people's. There are always a few lines, laughs or situations in the plays I have helped produce that I can secretly enjoy as my own.

EVERY PLAY you produce with enthusiasm becomes your adopted child. You walk hand in hand with it, you eat with it, you wake up in the morning and find it staring at you from a crib in the corner. You think to yourself, "If I could only get its father to straighten out that slight curvature of the spine, relax that tension in one leg so it can run faster, fix up its teeth so it will have a better bite, shorten its skirts or trousers as the case may be, put a bright bow in its hair, and maybe wash its face a little, it really wouldn't be a bad-looking child to take to an opening night."

Of course, you have to be pretty tactful about things like this.

THE ONLY American playwright that I have helped produce whose plays are practically ready for production, except for cutting, is Eugene O'Neill, and this is no wonder when you realize how he works. O'Neill will write a play slowly and carefully all in longhand—that very fine longhand which I can only read with a magnifying glass—and then he will put it away for three to six months, come back to it with a fresh point of view, reread it and rewrite it from beginning to end. Then sometimes he will put it away for a year before he writes it the third time.

You may say, "Why isn't it dated by this time?" But Gene has always said that one ought not to write about topical things unless one could find the timeless elements in them. That is why I consider O'Neill a dramatist rather than a playwright, perhaps our only American dramatist. As Shaw is perhaps the only living dramatist of England.

SHAW IS the most complete playwright that I know; almost too complete; you must not even have to cut his plays. As you probably know, he doesn't allow you to! But he is the easiest playwright of all to produce. If you follow the exact printed directions in his scripts, you will get fine results. If you try to improvise or use your own creative imagination too much, you usually get into a mess.

Star Shine By Sidney Skolsky

HOLLYWOOD, July 13—A number of service men are always on the set of "Winged Victory" watching the soldiers try to act like soldiers. Capt. John Huston has practically completed the editing of his combat films of the Italian campaign which will be released to the public. . . . Col. Joseph McKicking of General McArthur's staff spoke at a luncheon of the War Activities Committee and said: "If all service men were pulled on an award of an Army-Navy 'E,' their choice would be the motion picture business which several times a week provides for them a two-hour fulough home" . . . Bob Hope is scheduled for an overseas trip to the Pacific area, and Frances Langford and Jerry Colona will accompany him . . . Olivia De Havilland was dancing with a G. I. at the Hollywood Canteen and he said to her: "You look enough like Olivia De Havilland to be her sister." Olivia, with a smile, exclaimed, "My goodness! Not Joan Fontaine!" . . . Edward R. Murrow's description of rationing: "It means everyone has bread before anyone has cake."

Olivia De Havilland

NATALIE SHAFER, the actress, is going to model some fashion photos for Adrian which will be published in Harper's Bazaar . . . Lois Andrews will soon have her own morning radio program . . . Bill Grady, casting director at Metro, has solved the problem of getting a sent in a restaurant. He put in his own booth at Chasen's on which there is this sign: "You are sitting here through the courtesy of Bill Grady." . . . Fred Saito claims that a look about Gen. Eisenhower should be called, "How to Win France and Influence People."

THIS LETTER was written to Eugene Lyons, editor of American Mercury Magazine, and the writer has given me permission to use it. It goes: "I have just read in your esteemed magazine Mr. G. J. Nathan's article, 'The Movies Versus the Stage.' The article presumably reports an exchange of opinions between Mr. Nathan and myself on the above subject which is very close to me. The report in entertaining but not authentic. Curiously enough, everything that Mr. Nathan quotes me as having said, I did not say, and, conversely, what I did say Mr. Nathan does not quote. "So it is quite obvious that Mr. Nathan set out to write an amusing piece of purely creative fiction, an imaginary conversation between Mr. Nathan and a mythical character to whom, for some strange reason, he gave the name of—Yous sincerely—Rouben Mamoulian."

HOLLYWOODIANA: An independent producer who now has a smash hit called for his secretary and started to answer his mail. "Listen," said the producer, "now that I'm a success, I don't write my signature. I dictate it." Don't get me wrong. I love Hollywood.

Register-American, July 13, 1944

George Holland Boston After Dark

EXCLUSIVE: LT. HENRY A. "HANK" CHIARINI of Orient Heights is missing in France . . . News that the blocking back of the Boston College Eagles (under Gil Dobie) in 1938 had been placed on the unreported list was received by his brother, Peter . . . Boston nightclub-goers know Peter Chiarini as Pete Herman, the local union's outstanding bass fiddle player, and currently leader of the featured quartet at the Music Box.

THE WAR DEPARTMENTS routine message of young Chiarini's status gave no particulars, but the family was aware that Lt. Chiarini had been with the D-day forces which invaded Normandy . . . The missing officer was married in 1942, two months before he enlisted in the Army as a private.

He won his commission the "hard way," out of the ranks . . . Tony di Natale, who won more headlines than most of his teammates on the Dube teams at University Heights, was Lt. Chiarini's closest chum, and served as best man at the wedding.

INCIDENTALLY, a bond of sympathy should go out today to the Herman quartet when it plays for wounded veterans at the Framingham Hospital . . . John Costello, boss of the Music Box, made the announcement for Pete (Chiarini) Herman's band an hour before the message from the War Department told of "Hank" Chiarini's sad fortune in action.

YOUNG MICHAEL O'KEEFE, aged 9, arrived in Boston today for a one-night stop-over before proceeding to Oysterville for the summer . . . But bulletins from way stations between New York and Boston reported that the youngster was not sleeping well . . . For five or six years young Michael, who is the son of Walter O'Keefe, had been plucking with his parents to be allowed to see his father's act . . . The date was made final for the dinner show at the Terrace to-night . . . (It helped make Michael less unhappy about leaving N. Y.) . . . Mrs. O'Keefe, who was one of New York's famous beauties when she was on the stage as Roberta Robinson, phoned from New Haven, by pre-arrangement, and told her spouse that young Michael was too excited for sleep.

OLD MAN O'KEEFE is facing the ordeal with some trepidation . . . He has tried out radio gaps on his son, possibly under a misapprehension as to the accuracy of those surveys which place the intelligence quotient of radio audiences as of a low age, and has yet to raise a snicker . . . The O'Keefe Senior, by the way, has knocked out a musical comedy libretto and lyrics . . . It is called "Call Me Lucky!" . . . Bruce Oliver, who has composed much of the O'Keefe special song material, has written the music . . . Contracts for production will be signed Sunday, in New York.

ONCE OVER LIGHTLY: (Capsule editorial department) If you sneaked out a turnstile of the Boston "EI" you would—most probably—be turned over to the gentleman . . . The Boston "EI" has not yet been turned over to the coppers, but its standing is still on the statute books; there would seem to be apparent cause for summary action . . . These gaudy penny vending machines, which are supposed to give up gum, give up no gum—or no pennies . . . Not all of them of course . . . But many of them some of the time, and too many of them all of the time.

Navy Sets Up Job Service to Veterans

The Navy's new Civil Readjustment Program to guide honorably discharged personnel to the jobs, education and benefits due them in civilian life was revealed today by Lt. Com. Philip G. Tague, who directs the plan's operation here in the First Naval District.

"It will be our purpose," said Com. Tague, "to give every possible assistance in interpreting the laws applicable to Naval men and WAVES, including officers, who have given honorable service."

The program will not overlap or duplicate the functions of either private or other government agencies, but will work with them.

Com. Tague will be assisted in his office, Room 1121, First Naval District Headquarters, 150 Causeway St., by Lt. Drayton Phillips and Ens. Michael Perry, both of Boston. Com. Tague is the son of the late Postmaster Peter F. Tague.

MORAL OBLIGATION

Describing the program as "purely a moral obligation on the part of the Navy," Com. Tague declared staff interviewers will be present at each point of discharge to record the job qualifications as desired, Com. Tague declared.

Lt. Com. Tague

and needs of those honorably mustered out.

"These interviewers will be persons who have been through the mill themselves and know the language and problems of veterans," Com. Tague said.

"We intend to do our level best to see that these veterans get their former jobs, if possible, or obtain new jobs measurable with their abilities."

"And we will see that they practice the benefits and the education, fund or vocational, to which they are entitled. They will be treated with sympathy and understanding, but not coddled."

AVOID RE-ENTRY

The Navy's Civil Readjustment Program, as it is officially designated, is not an employment agency. The organizational setup will simply guide personnel to the proper place where their needs can best and quickest be met to prevent their getting a run-around, according to Com. Tague.

Any Navy veteran who, after being located in a job, is unable to hold it for some reason may at any time feel free to return to the readjustment organization for further help and advice as often to record the job qualifications as desired, Com. Tague declared.

Lindy Aiding 5th Air Force

WITH THE FIFTH AIR FORCE IN THE SOUTHWEST PACIFIC, July 13 (INS) Charles A. Lindbergh has been living for several weeks with fliers of the U. S. Fifth Air Force in British and Dutch New Guinea, studying ways and means of improving twin-engine American fighters and attack bombers.

Lindbergh has flown all types of twin-engine aircraft in Gen. Kenney's force and accompanied some crack pilots.

The Lone Eagle lived with the crack fighter unit known as "Hell's Angels" and spent most of his time aloft or "hangar flying" with the pilots. He conferred only briefly with the generals, then moved up to the most advanced jungle base to share a tent with the unit's commander.

Maj. Thomas McGuire of San Antonio, Tex., with 20 Jap planes to his credit, said of Lindbergh:

"He's really a swell guy. He mixed with everybody. He has taken in all the information any of us could give him and seemed to appreciate it greatly. Believe me, he certainly knows his airplanes, too."

In the Armed Forces

The Commendation Ribbon has recently been earned by Clifford Russell Blood, S. 1c, George St. Bedford, for outstanding service with a Navy Armed Guard aboard a merchant vessel. His commendation reads in part: "Obedient to sick bay after receiving severe gash on the base of the skull; Blood returned to his battle station despite the danger from terrific blasts of exploding mines nearby." Enemy aerial forces attacked the ship during rescue operations at Bari, Italy, in Dec., 1943.

Completing 10 months of service in the China-Burma-India theater, Lt. Leo Greengus, of Worcester, has been promoted to the rank of captain in a 10th AF Troop Carrier Squadron, Eastern Air Command, and assigned as a combat intelligence officer.

A Silver Star, for gallantry in action, has been awarded Capt. Fred M. Dancy, 26, High St. Shin, whose company routed a German infantry battalion and destroyed an enemy tank and two other vehicles while fighting with the first Armored Division in Italy.

Journal of Marine PFC James B. McNulty, Washington St., Boston, Camp Pendleton, Oceanside, Calif., after 25 months' duty in the Southwest Pacific, is announced. PFC McNulty wears the Presidential Unit Citation and served with the First Marine Division.

Recently returned from action in the European theater where he served as an engineer-gunner and won the Purple Heart is T-Sgt. Edward F. Hagar, Union Park St., Boston. He is enrolled as a student in the instructors' unit at Galveston Army Air Field, Tex.

'Cobra Woman' Fantastic For Keith Memorial Fan

By JOYCE DANA

It wouldn't be surprising to have Abbott and Costello show up in "Cobra Woman," which in spite of a sweltering day brought a jammed opening house to the Keith Memorial

For there's everything—and in Technicolor, too—in this fantastic idyl of the South Seas. There are even two of Maria Montez—one a wicked high priestess of Cobra Island who sends her subjects up a flight of a thousand steps to be hurled into a burning crater, and the other her twin, whose disposition is sweet and sunny, and who loves Jon Hall madly.

There is handsome Sabu, too, in his last picture for the duration, playing a junior Tarzan and dashing to the rescue of his friend Jon Sabu, poor lad, is subjected to the rope torture—tied up by the hands to the limb of a tree, but he's saved by the bell, Or is it by Coco, the chimp, that marvelous simian who can tire a neck!

Then there's Lon Chaney as Iliava, a henchman to Cobra's queen. He hasn't any tongue, but he gets around. As for the cobra, he's housed in a most ornate jeweled cage, and only raises his ugly head when Miss Montez, in a series of astounding costumes, performs a ritual dance and a couple of bumps while she selects the victim for the funeral pyre from among her cowering subjects.

Of all people, too, Mary Nash is on hand, trying to restore peace and happiness to the islanders. It takes a lot of doing, but you may be sure that the lovers are happy at the fadeout, and that Cobra Island will have to be renamed Paradise Atoll.

There are brief parts for Morton Olsen and Samuel Jinks, who wisely keep away from the danger spots, and there are all sorts of exotic flowers and a puma and dancing girls, and, of course, everybody looks very handsome indeed. W. Scott Darling thought up the story.

MANY NEVER SUSPECT CAUSE OF BACKACHES

This Old Treatment Often Brings Happy Relief

Many sufferers relieve nagging backache quickly, once they discover that the real cause of their trouble may be tired kidneys. The kidneys are Nature's chief way of taking the excess acids and waste out of the blood. They help most people pass about 3 pints a day. When function of kidney function permits poisonous matter to remain in your blood, it may cause nagging backache, rheumatic pains, leg pains, loss of pep and energy, getting up nights, swelling, puffiness under the eyes, headache and dizziness. Frequent or scanty passages with burning and burning sometimes shows there is something wrong with your kidneys or bladder.

Don't wait! Ask your druggist for Doan's Pills, used successfully by millions for over 40 years. They give happy relief and will help the 15 miles of kidney tubes flush out poisonous waste from your blood. Get Doan's Pills.

Willie Pep Here for Battle With Ortiz

By JACK CONWAY

WILLIE PEP, recognized as world's featherweight champion in New York, today started training at Kelley and Hayes' Gym for his 10-round bout with Manuel Ortiz, world's bantamweight champion, which will take place at a Callahan A. C. show at National League Park on Monday night. Pep came here from Hartford where he rested up for a few days following his 10-round victory over Willie Joyce of Gary, Ind., at Chicago.

Pep is in good condition as a result of his meeting with Joyce. His training sessions here will have him razor sharp for his tussle with Ortiz.

Fearing he would be unable to secure suitable sparring partners, Pep arranged for Sam Gibson to have Jean Barriere and Paul Rivet, Montreal featherweight, here. These two speedy Canadians will give Pep plenty of opposition.

Louis Viscusi calls attention to the fact Pep weighed 127½ pounds for Joyce. This dispels any thought Pep cannot make 126 pounds.

Boxing Commissioner Sam Smith says he looks for one of the best bouts ever held in Boston when Pep and Ortiz toss blows in the Battle of Champions.

"The recent Ortiz-Bolvin bout did much for Boston boxing," said Commissioner Smith. "Bolvin made a fine showing, while Ortiz looked every inch a champion when he cut loose with both hands."

"Pep's sensational ring record, which includes 74 wins out of 75 starts, stamps him as one of the best featherweights in years. Pep will have to show at his best if he is to win from Ortiz."

Mulligan's Chances

JIMMY MULLIGAN, Lowell light heavyweight, can climb the fistic ladder that leads to fame if he disposes of Earl Lowman of New York in the eight-round semifinal. Mulligan is expected to scale 180 pounds against 220 pounds for Lowman. This will give Lowman an advantage of 40 pounds. In his recent bout with Irish Johnny Flynn, Lowman displayed plenty of ability. Lowman has a jaw of iron, and Mulligan will gain considerable fame if he can upset his opponent.

The price scale of $120, $2, $3.60, $5 and $6 will bring the show within the range of all. Reservations may be made at the Callahan A. C.'s office, No. 44 School street, telephones Lafayette 6197 and Lafayette 6198.

The Disabled Veterans Fund of the American Record-Sunday Advertiser will share in the profits of charity week.

Charlestown Boys Threaten

The Charlestown Boys' Club, entering a team of nine boys, will be eyeing top honors in the championship swimming meet to be held Saturday afternoon at the Tufts square pool, Medford, under the auspices of the Record-American-Sunday Advertiser.

An added feature of this meet will be special exhibitions of life saving to be presented by the American Red Cross under the direction of William Houston.

Bunker Hill Club entries will find Francis Moran and Robert Buckley competing in the 100-yard back-stroke event; John O'Brien and John Luckiel in the 100-yard breast-stroke, and Fred Sullivan, Harry Murphy, William Sullivan and Kenneth Robinson in the 110-yard free style championship. Buckley will double up in the 50-yard free-style for novices while O'Brien will also race in the senior 110-yard title swim.

Three unattached swimmers have also filed entries with Director Eddie Pidgeon. John Moran, Medford, will compete in the 50-yard freestyle for boys; William Engle, also of Medford, will race in the 50-yard novice event as will James Peckham, Quincy.

Previously, Coach Helen Carroll of the newly organized Winchester Swimming Club had entered a complete team covering all events. The Winchester team has come along rapidly so that it will be rated the team to beat in this first competitive effort.

Sox Get Vital NY Test

By FRED HOEY

The Red Sox today enter upon the most crucial test of their 1944 campaign. What the future holds forth for them, in a pennant sense, is in the laps of the baseball gods and seven other clubs. What they accomplish on this trip on which they have embarked will determine, in a large measure, whether we have our first pennant since 1918, or whether we have to endure another year of regrets and alibis.

Starting today in the Yankee Stadium the Red Sox play a double-header, with the New York Yankees. A six-game series with the Yankees should, in a strong measure, provide an early answer for that asked question, "Where are we going?"

Following the six-game joust with the Yanks the Sox go out in the hinterlands. Twenty-two games in 20 days. Boys, reach for the aspirin and add some ice water. Some trip!

But Manager Joe Cronin has rested his crew during the All-Star respite and the boys should be able to give and take on this arduous trip.

As the Sox swung into the Yankee Stadium today to start a trip that might in a small sense rival Custer's Last Stand, Manager Joe has won his last two starts, backed by some boisterous hitting, would pitch one of the games.

Yanks has lost six games on a total of eight runs, which approaches something like a world's record for the 1944 campaign.

BARRETT IS READY

Francis "Red" Barret was to start the other games against the Yanks today. In his last appearance on the hill Red fanned seven Cleveland Indians in less than four innings.

While Jim Tabor still nurses a broken rib, Jimmy Bucher will cover third base. The baseball gods must have smiled on the Sox when they steered this valuable guy Bucher to the club.

Eddie Lake, the infielder converted to the pitching box, will start at least one of the games on this long 22-game trek. As Bill Grimes, the Boston American baseball expert already has told you, this kid can pitch. And where could Eddie find a better spot with 22 games on the road?

Manager Joe McCarthy was to shoot Ernie Bonham and Atley Donald at the Sox today. Since Manager Joe saw fit to permit that really great clutch hitter, Pete Fox, to warm the All-Star bench in Pittsburgh Tuesday night while his American leaguers were being slaughtered 7 to 1, it wouldn't make N. E. fans mad if Pete went 5 for 5 in both games against Joe's pets today.

Evans Continues to Win Golf Tilt

CHICAGO, July 13 (AP).—Charles (Chick) Evans, whose golfing victories date way back, added another one to his long list yesterday.

The veteran Chicago amateur, who will be 54 years old on July 18, held a premature birthday celebration by winning the 20th annual stampede tournament. He shot a 27 hole score of 39—39—116, to top the field of 175.

12 Majors Resume Action Today

With the three-day vacation moning their second wind in dew, the major league swings terminated efforts to overhaul the back into the second half of the high flying Cardinals and Browns season today as 12 clubs are sum-of St. Louis.

Williams, Baksi Move Up in Ratings

WASHINGTON, July 13 (AP)—Joe Baksi of Wilkes-Barre, Pa., and Ike Williams of Trenton, N. J., advanced to the select class among the heavyweights and lightweights, respectively, in new quarterly ratings announced today by the National Boxing Ass'n.

Baksi, who recently defeated Lee Savold, now in the Maritime service, took over the top position in the "outstanding boxers" listings, ranking behind champion Joe Louis and challengers Billy Conn and Jimmy Bivins.

Williams moved up to the "logical contender" category in the lightweight division, following champion Juan Zurita of Mexico and challengers Bob Montgomery of Philadelphia and Beau Jack of the Army in the NBA ratings.

FEW MAIR CHANGES

President Abe J. Greene of the NBA pointed out that there were few major changes in the quarterly ratings because most of the "name" fighters now are in the armed forces.

Greene said the NBA intends to stick to its policy of "freezing" the titles of champions now in military garb and has no intention of according "duration" recognition to civilian pugilists.

Among the titleholders now in the armed forces are Louis, in the Army; Light Heavyweight Gus Lesnevich of the Coast Guard; Middleweight Tony Zale and Welterweight Freddie Cochrane of the Navy and Featherweight Sal Bartola of the Maritime Service.

MILLS IN THIRD SPOT

Boxers from outside the United States were accorded more recognition than usual. Freddie Mills of England was given the third spot among the light heavyweights. Jose Basora of Puerto Rico was listed as a middleweight contender. Marcel Cerdan of France advanced in the welterweight listings and English boxers made a clean sweep in the flyweight class.

The ratings are as follows: HEAVYWEIGHTS: Champion, Joe Louis, Army; logical contenders, Billy Conn and Jimmy Bivins, both in Army; outstanding boxers, Lee Savold, Maritime Service; Tami Maunulo, New York, Lee Q. Murray, Connecticut, and Joe Maxim, Army.

LIGHT HEAVYWEIGHT: Champion, Gus Lesnevich, Coast Guard; logical contenders, Lloyd Marshall, Cleveland, and Freddie Mills, England; outstanding boxers, Anton Christoforidis, Navy and Eddie Bokor, California.

MIDDLEWEIGHTS: Champion, Tony Zale, Navy; logical contenders, George Abrams, Navy; Holman Williams, Detroit; Jake La Motta, New York; Tony Martin, Coast Guard; Joe Carter, New York, and Jose Basora, Puerto Rico; outstanding boxers, Steve Belloso, New York; Freddie Apostoli, Navy; Coley Walsh, Maine, and Tommy Yarosz, Army.

WELTERWEIGHTS: Champion, Freddie Cochrane, Navy; logical contenders, Ray Robinson, New York, and California Jackie Wilson, Army; outstanding boxers, Henry Armstrong, Los Angeles, Tommy Bell, Ohio; Marty Servo, Coast Guard; Marcel Cerdan, France, and Sammy Angott, Louisville, Ky.

LIGHTWEIGHTS: Champion, Juan Zurita, Mexico; logical contenders, Bob Montgomery, Philadelphia; Beau Jack, Army, and Ike Williams, Trenton; outstanding boxers, Bobby Ruffin, New York; Slugger White, Baltimore; John Thomas, California; Willie Joyce, Illinois, and Tippy Larkin, New Jersey.

BANTAMWEIGHTS: Manuel Ortiz, California; logical contenders, Rush Palma, Philippines, Tony Ocampo, California.

FLYWEIGHTS: Champion, Jackie Patterson, England; logical contenders, Peter Kane, Alex Murphy, Norman Lewis and George Parks, all of England; outstanding boxers, Sammy Reynolds and Joe Curran, both of England.

Redskins, March Field Fliers Matched

LOS ANGELES, July 13 (INS)—The first football game of the 1944 season in Los Angeles is being played tonight, as the powerful service team, the March Field Fliers, and the Washington Redskins of the National Professional League on the night of Aug. 25.

Slinging Sammy Baugh will lead the eastern champs, who will set up training quarters in San Diego.

Cocher Munger Turns Down All-Star Berth

PHILADELPHIA, July 13 (INS)—George Munger, coach of the University of Pennsylvania football team, announced today that he has declined an offer of a coaching position with the college all-star football team which will play in Chicago in August.

Munger said he turned down the job because his team starts its preseason drills this afternoon, and will continue until too late for him to report in the Mid-west.

Climate in Sweden Cases Take On Best for 4-m. Mile? Linehan Club

By PAT ROBINSON

NEW YORK, July 13 (INS)—The 4-minute mile, long the dream of track and field enthusiasts, is a certainty, according to no less an authority than the boss of the AAU.

Back in the days when 4:25 was great time for a mile, Ferris was predicting that he would live to see somebody cover the eight furlongs in four minutes flat.

Dan hoped that the four-minute man would be an American but now he is inclined to believe it may be a Swede. He bases that belief on the performance of Gunner Hagg, who set a new world record for the 1500 meters at Gottenburg the other day.

Gunner ran the metric equivalent of the mile in 3:45, two full seconds better than the old mark. Arne Andersson, former title holder, clipped a second off his best previous mark, but still finished a few yards behind his rival.

Dan believes there is something in the air over there that makes the boys run faster and longer. "Their tracks are no better than ours," says Dan, "so it must be the climate. I am sure of this because those fellows never run quite as well over here as they do over there and our boys run much faster there than they do here."

"I'm inclined to believe that anybody can run a mile from one to three seconds faster in Sweden than he can in the United States!"

When Hagg did that 1500 in 3:45 he was traveling 7.35 yards a second.

3:59.3 MILE

"At that speed he would have covered the remaining distance—120 yards—to round out the mile in 16.3 seconds. That would have given him a mile in 3:59.3. I wish he'd done it, so he could conceen-trate on the seven-foot high jumper and 16-foot pole vaulters we are sure to see one of these days."

Dan is firmly convinced that our own Bill Hulce or Gil Dodd could come close to the magic time if given a shot under perfect conditions in Sweden.

Hulce has hooped the mile in 4:06 and Dodd in 4:06.1 over there. They wouldn't have to improve as much as you might think to come close to four-flat if running in the racing atmosphere of the Vikings.

Rivals of long standing in the Boston Park League—the Dick Casey Club of Dorchester and the Linehan Club of South Boston—will be headlining the three games in the popular after-dinner circuit tonight when they meet at Columbus Park, South Boston.

Other contests pit the Watertown A. A. against the West Roxbury A. A. at Billings Field, West Roxbury, and the Navy Yard A. A. against Lawley's Shipyard in a return go at Garvey Playground, Neponset.

The Columbus Park battle will probably bring together a pair of right-handers as pitching opponents. Bob Fulton will be the likely choice of Manager Dick Casey while Joe McKenney will take over the mound duties for Manager Billy Benson of the home team.

Dorchester nine has started to feel the pressure in its summer berth so that there'll be no gambling with the result in this tilt. Manager Frankie Spano, with a safe lead over the field, will be continuing to apply the pressure as he sends Southpaw Jimmy Dally to the hill for the Navy Yard A. A. against Lawley's Hal Crosby's Neponset team will be facing a chance to move into the first division—as well as tighten the entire race—by stopping the league leaders.

Elis Defy Weather, Hold Grid Practice

NEW HAVEN, Ct., July 13 (AP)—Coach Howard Odell lost little time putting his Yale football candidates through their opening paces yesterday as 86 hophuls sweltered through a 90-minute workout under a broiling sun.

After practicing starts and stance, the squad was cut in half with the backs working on pass defense and the linemen drilling on blocking maneuvers.

The squad is one of the huskiest in all Yale football history with fully half of the 40 line candidates standing six feet or more.

Six of them weighed in at more than 200 pounds each.

All squad members reported in excellent physical trim after finishing a grueling conditioning program under the direction of Bob Kipnuth which regulated the regular spring training season.

Odell will stage a series of sprints in today's session, he said, to get some idea of the speed of each candidate. He said he would also try a few formations.

Million-Dollar Handle At Garden State

CAMDEN, N. J., July 13 (INS)—Garden State Park race track, on Camden's outskirts, chalked up its first million-dollar day today after a surprising weekday crowd of 12,327 poured $1,091,571 into the mutual machines.

A record $696.50 daily double for the meeting was also set when Santa Candida ($13.30) won the first race, and Miss Economy, ($32) took the second.

Church Escapes

Twin spires of this church in Caen above the rumble and ruins of the Normandy river port, one of the few objects to survive the thunderous Allied bombardment which preceded the fall of the city.

Berlin—
